Loren's practice focuses on economic development, real estate, and general business law. Loren has practiced in Northern Kentucky since 2007, including owning her own law practice with her husband. In 2017, she served as the Interim City Manager for the City of Covington for six months. Prior to law school, Loren worked in the Indiana State Legislature and the Indianapolis Mayor's office.

Loren assists clients with planning and zoning and other transactional issues impacting growth and development. Loren has a practical approach and her experience in government, urban development, and owning her own business, makes her well-suited to advise businesses through various stages of growth.

Loren obtained her J.D. from University of Illinois Chicago School of Law and a B.S. in Political Science and History from Indiana University. She serves on the boards for Center for Great Neighborhoods of Covington (past chair), Covington Community Montessori, the Northern Kentucky Convention Center, Blue North Entrepreneur Leadership Council, and Kentucky Commission on Small Business Innovation and Advocacy. She is a past member of the Covington Motor Vehicle Parking Authority Board (past chair).

Loren resides in Covington, KY, with her husband, Ben, and three children.
