

Elizabeth Rupp

Associate

ERUPP@DBLLAW.COM

Elizabeth is an Associate at DBL Law, practicing in the firm's Banking & Commercial and Real Estate Practice Groups. Based in the Northern Kentucky office, Elizabeth brings a wealth of experience from her legal background in Washington, D.C. She joined DBL Law in 2024, focusing on complex commercial lending transactions and real estate matters.

Before joining DBL Law, Elizabeth honed her legal skills through high-profile internships with the U.S. District Courts and the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission's Division of Enforcement. These experiences gave her a unique perspective on regulatory enforcement, corporate law, and litigation. A summa cum laude graduate from the University of Kentucky and a recent graduate of George Washington University Law School, Elizabeth's commitment to legal excellence and strategic problem-solving serves her clients well as she represents financial institutions and businesses in a range of banking and commercial transactions.

PRACTICE AREAS

- Banking & Commercial
- Real Estate

HONORS & DISTINCTIONS

- Summa cum laude from the University of Kentucky
-

RELATED EXPERIENCE

During law school, Elizabeth interned for the Honorable Gregory F. Van Tatenhove at the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Kentucky. She also interned for the Honorable Beryl A. Howell at the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, as well as with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission Division of Enforcement, focusing mostly on investigations. At George Washington, Elizabeth was a member of the George Washington International Law Review, and a member of the Corporate and Business Law Society.

ADMISSIONS

- Commonwealth of Kentucky
-

EDUCATION

- B.A., University of Kentucky. Summa cum laude, 2021
- J.D., George Washington University Law School, 2024.